

The 8th juststories Storytelling Concert

SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 2010

Locations & Times:

1pm - 2:30pm in Chinatown

St. Therese Chinese Catholic School Auditorium
247 West 23rd Street, Chicago • Donation for the Chinese American Museum

7:30pm - 10:00pm in Evanston

SPACE: Society for the Preservation of Art & Culture in Evanston
1245 Chicago Avenue, Evanston, IL • (Dempster & Chicago) • Suggested Donation: $10

This event is suitable for High School Age through Adults

Bearing Witness . . . Bringing Hope

A storytelling event devoted to strengthening and honoring the human family. We will share stories and song about race relations, pride and pain, journeys with tears and laughter, and the ongoing search for the amazing American identity.

Chinese American Storyteller

Nancy Wang

performing the premiere of her new story

BITTERSWEET:

A Chinese American Daughter's Legacy

Immigrant Journey. Shame. Challenge. Family saga. Mother's shadow and daughter's discoveries.

African American Stories, Blues & Hope from
Rev. Robert Jones & Sister Bernice Jones

Music to Connect the Human Family with Storyteller Robert Kikuchi-Yngojo

Weaving it all together, your host:
Storyteller Susan O'Halloran

Concert information or printable flier:
www.racebridges.net/juststories

Friday April 16, 2010

High School Students Performance :
Maria High School • 6727 S. California • Chicago
High School Groups Only
See : www.racebridges.net/juststories/schools

This event is presented by Angels Studio/Chicago, a communications ministry of the Chicago Province of the Society of the Divine Word, O'Halloran Communications/Evanston, IL, The Chinese American Museum of Chicago and SPACE: Society for the Preservation of Art & Culture in Evanston.

INCLUSION • EQUALITY • DIVERSITY