

MISSION STATEMENT

COR/CATHOLIC SCHOOLS OPPOSING RACISM is a network of Catholic secondary schools in the Archdiocese of Chicago collaborating to eradicate racism. We are committed to empowering adolescents with experiences that transcend the boundaries of personal, spatial and institutional racism and with the skills to embrace an inclusive world. Our Gospel mission calls us to encourage understanding and respect for all people and to provide learning opportunities that will inspire young people to put their faith into action.

COR is sponsored by:

- Queen of Peace High School, a Sinsinawa Dominican-sponsored school for young women and the Sinsinawa Dominican Ministry Fund
- Angels Studio, a communications ministry of the Chicago Province of the Society of the Divine Word, and the JustStories Fellowship Project of Angels Studio
- COR is endorsed by the Archdiocese of Chicago Office of Catholic Schools
